

SONNETS

SONNETS Workshop

“Emerging ICTs and Innovation Potential for the Public Sector”

Date: 10/02/2017

Venue: The Cube - 8 Kleisovis Str, 10677 – Athens, Greece

Organised by: SONNETS consortium

Contact person: Dr. Sotiris Koussouris
Telephone: +30 210 772 3514
Email: skous@epu.ntua.gr

Co-funded by the Horizon 2020
Framework Programme of the European Union

Agenda

Time	Description	Presenter
09:15-10:00	Arrival of the participants – Welcome (coffee, tea)
10:00-10:20	The SONNETS project: An Introduction	ATOS
10:20-10:50	The SONNETS Innovation Identification Framework for the Public Sector and emerging technologies	NTUA
10:50-11:15	Major societal challenges and needs for the Public Sector	ISMB
11:15-11:30	SONNETS Roadmap for emerging research directions	FhG
11:30-11:45	Coffee Break
11:45-12:00	Emerging technologies for the public sector	Dr. Aljosa Pasic
12:15-12:30	The CLARITY project: Enhancing the up-take of open eGovernment services in Europe	Dr. Thordis Sveinsdottir
12:30-12:45	Public sector innovation in social services: the potential of ICT-enabled social innovation. The IESI research project	Csaba Kucsera
12:45-13:00	VisiOn - Visual privacy management of user's data for public administrations	Andreas Drakos
13:00-14:00	Light Lunch Break
14:00-14:15	Digitally Based Open and Collaborative Services	Francesco Mureddu
14:15-14:30	City4Age - Elderly-friendly city services for active and healthy ageing	Eirini Stafyla Ilia Christantoni
14:30-14:45	Public entities Innovation Potential in eHealth - Six barriers for adopting new eHealth solutions and strategy to overcome them	Ana Durán
14:45-15:00	OpenGovIntelligence: Improving public services with statistical linked data	Evangelos Kalabokis
15:00-16:00	Talks by the SONNETS Experts Committee and short panel discussion (moderated by SONNETS)	Prof. Yannis Charalabidis Dr. Francesco Molinari Filippo Addarii Mr. Giorgio Da Bormida
16:00	Closing	